Who are we?

The International Women's Club of Barcelona is an association open to all nationalities. Our common language is English.

Our aim is to provide a welcoming environment to establish friendships, enhance knowledge, and offer support when needed.

Each week we host a variety of special events, and regular activities, both in Casa Orlandai and within the wider Barcelona area.

Our library with a stock of over 500 titles has its own light and airy room in Casa Orlandai. The library is open on Wednesdays exclusively for our members. Our book club meets here monthly.

Our open house coffee morning is held every Wednesday at Casa Orlandai, in Sala Foix, from 11:00 – 13:00. This is often the first point of contact for our new members.

We have regular speakers that give talks on a wide variety of topics. There are guided walks, craft classes, museum visits, Pilates classes, lunch in the city, tapas nights, fund raising events for charity and lots more. Several of our evening and weekend activities are open to guests.

Members receive a monthly Activity sheet.

The IWCB has been a successful voluntary group in Barcelona for nearly 65 years.
